In 1991, Imperial Oil Resources formed a Women In Wage Network to support, mentor and empower women working in a non-traditional career.

The network is proud to sponsor an annual education award for women pursuing non-traditional careers in the petroleum industry.

The recipient of the award will receive $1000 and will also be considered for summer and post-graduate employment with Imperial if opportunities are available.

Eligibility

To be eligible, candidates must:

- Be a resident of Alberta, British Columbia or North West Territories.
- Provide proof of a Grade 12 diploma or G.E.D.
- Be accepted into a post-secondary institution taking a petroleum related program.

Eligible programs

An approved program is defined as a full-time post-secondary course that leads to a career in the petroleum industry. Examples of eligible programs:

- Heavy Oil Operations Technician
- Instrumentation Engineering Technology
- Petroleum Engineering Technology
- Power Engineering 4th Class
- Power Engineering 3rd Class
- Electrical Engineering Technology
- Machinist Technician
- Millwright

Other educational programs may be considered based on their relation to the petroleum industry. Contact Imperial for a determination of eligibility.

Application checklist

The following documentation must accompany your application to be accepted:

- Completed application form.
- Brief essay describing why you have chosen a petroleum industry career path.
- Academic transcript (high school or most recent educational institution attended).

Application process

- Award selection will be based on essay and interview.
- Proof of acceptance to post-secondary institution must be produced before the award will be released.
- Payment of the award will be made to the award recipient after attending the educational institution for one month.

Completed applications must be received by October 15
