

If your passion is procurement

Come and join us, if you:

- Have a desire to learn and create value
- Are a team player with business acumen and analytical abilities
- Have strong communication skills to interface with suppliers and clients
- Take a creative approach to increasing efficiency and solving problems
- Want contracting and supply chain experience

What we offer:

- Work for a leading member of Canada's energy industry
- Challenging assignments and constant employee development
- Inspiring and diverse working teams and networking opportunities
- Benefits program that you can customize to meet your needs
- Competitive vacation package

Learn more about a rewarding career with Imperial at imperialoil.ca/careers

Mylene Lachance

I value working for a company that fuels and energizes its vibrant workforce with career development opportunities and experiences that help grow our futures